

NOVEMBER 2023 GRANTS

All Our Kin, $55,000, to build the capacity of home-based child care providers in Westchester.

Bethany Arts Community, $20,000, to support two four-month fellowships for emerging artists.

Brooklyn Steppers Inc., $10,000, to expand a drumline program for young people in Mount Vernon.

Charis Chamber Voices, $5,000, to present two performances of a Bach oratorio in German.

Community Center of Northern Westchester, $37,000, to reduce food insecurity and promote better health and self-sufficiency for residents of Northern Westchester.

Community Resource Center, $118,500, to support advocacy by low-income immigrants.

Community Voices Heard, $118,500, to support advocacy by low-income residents of color.

Copland House, $15,000, to support two fellowships for emerging composers at the Cultivate workshop.

Don Bosco Workers, Inc., $118,500, to support day laborers in Port Chester with a hiring hall, safety and workplace rights training, and advocacy.

Downtown Music at Grace, $7,500, to present three concerts exploring the works of female German composers.

Endeavor Therapeutic Horsemanship, $30,000, to help female veterans cope with trauma by working with horses.

Family Services of Westchester, $20,000, to expand the reach of the youth councils.

Garrison Institute, $25,000, to support a resilient leaders program for executive directors, program managers, and HR managers.

GOOD For Girls, $20,000, to support a girls' mentoring and leadership development program in White Plains

Hearts and Homes for Refugees, $45,000, to expand community-sponsored refugee resettlement in Westchester County.

Hillside Food Outreach, $18,000, to deliver healthy food to low-income Westchester residents who cannot access local food pantries.

Hudson Chorale Inc, $9,000, to support three concerts in 2024 highlighting German composers.

League of Women Voters of Westchester Education Foundation, $3,000, to encourage young women to explore public service as a career.

Neighbors Link, $118,500, for a leadership development and advocacy program for low-income immigrants.

New Era Creative Space Inc., $10,000, for a girls leadership program in Peekskill.

Port Chester Carver Center, Inc., $25,000, to support the Carver Scholars leadership development program.

re:power Fund, $5,000, to provide leadership training to women of color in Westchester.

Rivertowns Village Green, $10,000, to make fresh, locally grown produce more accessible to low-income Tarrytown residents.

Seneca Nation of Indians, $25,000, to provide Seneca language instruction for children of the Seneca Nation of Indians.

Shinnecock Indian Nation (Boys & Girls Club), $120,000, to provide out-of-school time programs and cultural education to young members of the Shinnecock Indian Nation.

The Advocacy Institute, $20,000, to train community groups in legislative advocacy.

The Picture House Regional Film Center, $15,000, for the 2024 German Film Festival.

Vote Run Lead, $5,000, to support emerging women leaders and candidates for political office in Westchester.

Westchester Jewish Community Services, $120,000, to support families in an early childhood literacy program in Tarrytown, and to support poor Jewish boys and girls.

Westchester Youth Alliance, $20,000, to expand programming in Westchester County.